

CHALET APASSION

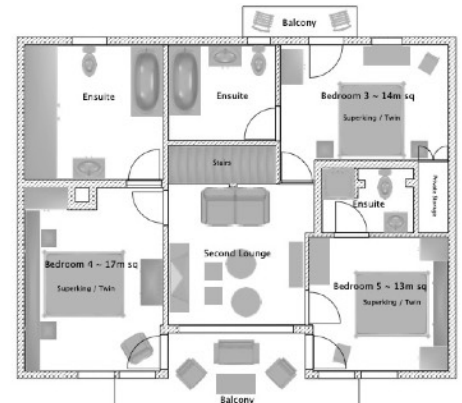

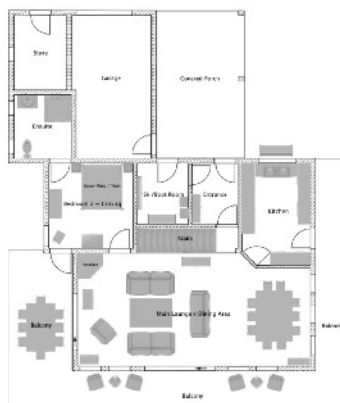

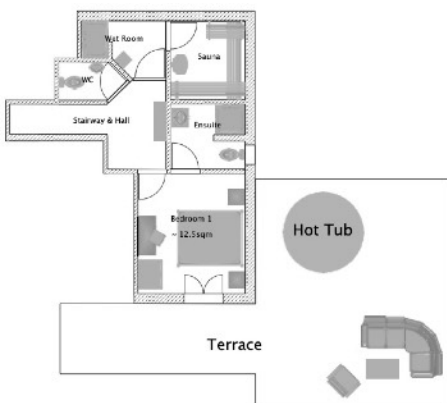

Chalet APASSION is a luxury chalet located in the picturesque village of Samoëns in the French Alps, an hour from Geneva

The chalet offers five spacious, individually styled, double bedrooms each with an ensuite, as well as private access to either a balcony or terrace. All rooms can be tailored as double or twin meaning the chalet can comfortably accommodate up to 10 people.

The main living area of the chalet extends across the full width of the property affording guests a breath-taking panorama over the Giffre Valley. The open-plan design offers ample space for guests to enjoy the culinary delights of the chalet around the dining-room table before relaxing after dinner in front of the log fire.
