

CHALET APASSION

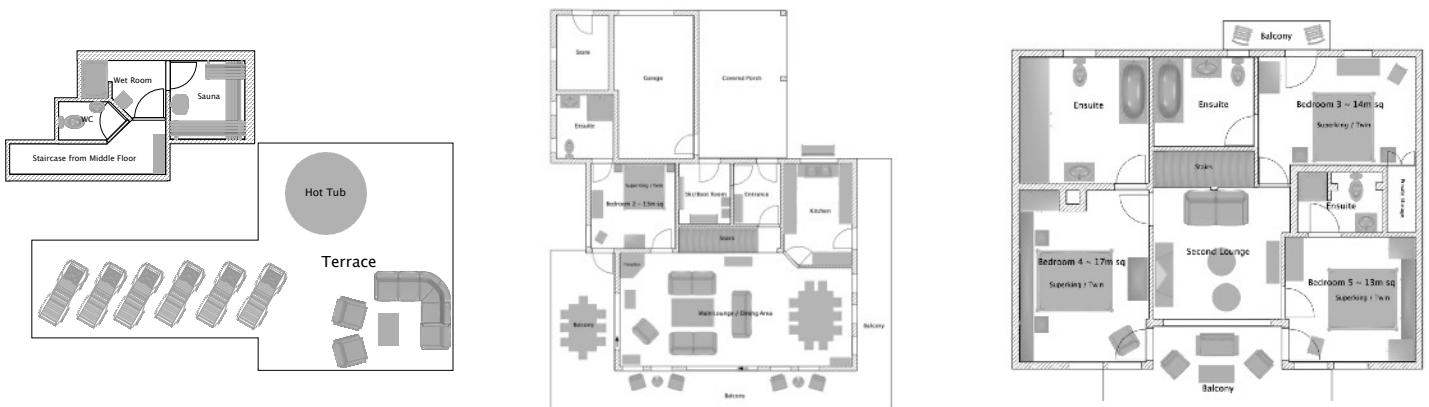

Chalet APASSION is a luxury chalet located in the picturesque village of Samoëns in the French Alps, an hour from Geneva

The chalet offers four spacious, individually styled, double bedrooms each with an ensuite, as well as private access to either a balcony or terrace. All rooms can be tailored as double or twin meaning the chalet can comfortably accommodate up to 8 people.

The main living area of the chalet extends across the full width of the property affording guests a breath-taking panorama over the Giffre Valley. Guests can relax on one of the many balconies or on the extensive terrace where there is a selection of seating options and sun-loungers in addition to the luxurious 6-person cedar hot-tub.

Samoëns is an unspoilt, authentic and pretty mountain village set in the heart of the Giffre Valley. In summer Samoëns offers easy access to over 900km of hiking routes, renowned stretches the Tour de France, mountain-biking as well as numerous adrenaline filled activities including white-water rafting, via-ferrata and paragliding.
